

Modern world of professions. Problems of choosing a profession. The role of foreign language in your profession

- a) What professions demanding high knowledge of foreign languages do you know?
- b) Read the article about professions in modern world.

In today's rapidly changing world, the range of available professions is wider than ever before. Despite traditional careers such as medicine, engineering, and teaching remain important, new roles in IT, digital marketing, environmental science, etc. are emerging anyways. Moreover, technology and globalization are transforming the job market, demanding adaptability and continuous learning from workers.

Problems of Choosing a Profession

Choosing a profession can and even should be a complex and stressful process. Teenagers and young adults often face pressure from family, society, personal expectations even, because many are unsure about their interests or unaware of the job market's demands, while others may struggle to balance passion with financial stability. However, it is the most important: to remember that people can change careers later in life. Career guidance, internships, and self-reflection still can help in making more informed choices.

The Role of Foreign Language in Your Profession

In the modern professional world, knowledge of a foreign language plays a key role almost everywhere. It opens up access to international information, communication, and collaboration in fields like business, tourism, technology and much more. Foreign language skills can lead not to only better job opportunities and career growth but also enable professionals to work in multinational companies or study abroad. Even in local markets, being bilingual or multilingual can offer a competitive advantage.

In conclusion, the modern world offers a wide variety of professions, but choosing the right one requires careful thought. Foreign language skills are becoming increasingly important in almost every career, helping professionals connect globally and succeed in the international job market.

Do the tasks according to your field of studies.

How can the difficulties in choosing a future career affect teenager's quality of life?
Make up a survey among your peers and present it in class.

How can modern technologies help in adapting to a new profession? Make a presentation about the pros and cons of using AI in your future job.

How can the world be affected by the increase in the number of people who know two or more languages? Make a suggestion about how the world would develop if more people knew English, and if fewer did, and talk about it in class.

Choose one of the statements below:

1. English is the most convenient language to learn globally.
2. Nowadays the job market is demanding a lot more than it used to.
3. A lot of people know what they're want to be from the very young age.

Give a 1.5-minute on one of these statements. You can use the following plan:

- state the problem;
- express your personal opinion and give reasons for it;
- express an opposing opinion and give reasons for it;
- say why you do not agree with the opposing opinion;
- make a conclusion restating your opinion.
